

For New York City's Enthusiasts,
We want to keep you informed
with the Newest and Latest...

Leonel Piraino

Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker

212-906-9363

917-701-2363

lpiraino@bhsusa.com

view my listings >

Big Apple Circus at Lincoln Center

The famous Big Apple Circus has high-wire aerialists, acrobats, jugglers, clowns, contortionists,

Nutcracker New York City Ballet

George Balanchine's The Nutcracker is a holiday

rescue animals, and a band in a heated tent at Lincoln Center.

read more >

tradition with old-fashioned costumes, a tree that grows before your eyes, crystal-shaped snowflakes, fine choreography by New York City Ballet, and Tchaikovsky's captivating music at David H. Koch Theater.

read more >

Bull Riding at Madison Square Garden

Every event begins with pyrotechnics, explosions, and flames. Then the excitement really begins when the Top 35 bull riders in the world compete against the fiercest bucking bulls on the planet, providing two hours of thrills and spills guaranteed to keep you on the edge-of-your-seat with your heart pounding!

read more >

Adult Night Train Show

On these nights exclusively for adults 21 and over, the wintry landscape of NYBG sets the scene for festive outdoor adventures, with an after-dark viewing of the Holiday Train Show® as the centerpiece. Purchase a spiked hot chocolate and grab a bite from the Bronx Night Market Holiday Pop-up, then set out to explore the night's offerings. Warm up around our handcrafted fire pits and feel the joy of the season with artistic ice carving, festive performers, dueling piano singalongs, and DJ sets curated by Uptown Vinyl Supreme.

read more >

NYC Restaurant Week

NYC Restaurant Week is a celebration of NYC's most fabulous pastime: dining out. With hundreds of restaurants throughout the City rolling out special prix-fixe menus for a limited time, this is your chance to revel without a cause.

New York Boat Show

See new boats, marine gear, and accessories plus workshops and TV celebrities at the New York Boat Show at the Jacob Javits Convention Center.

read more >

Antiques Show at Park Avenue Armory

Shop for exceptional antiques ranging from ancient Roman glass to mid-century modern from 70 exhibitors at The Winter Show at Park Avenue Armory. See the schedule for special evenings.

No baby strollers on weekends.

read more >

read more >

New York Wine Fest

Wine Fest is your all access pass to hundreds of new wines from around the world. Travel the world of wine at the The Tunnel in New York City.

Guests will enjoy wine samples for their entire session paired with live entertainment, food and interactive games.

read more >

New York Times Travel Show

The New York Times Travel Show attracts more than 35,000 attendees with over 700 exhibitors from more than 175 countries, making it the largest travel trade and consumer show in North America. Join us for the 2020 show on January 24 – 26 at the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center.

read more >

The Illusionists in Broadway

Some of the most mind-blowing illusionists on earth are bringing their magic touch back to Broadway for a fifth extraordinary year in THE ILLUSIONISTS. Featuring acts from America's Got Talent and beyond, this year's all-new show is perfect for the whole family. Dazzling performers from around the world come together at Broadway's can't-miss holiday event for six weeks only—so get your tickets before they're gone, because now you see them, and soon you won't.

read more >

Here Today, Gone Tomorrow

Curated List by Sharon Hoge

We want to keep you informed of some wonderful temporary exhibits and installations on display in museums right now. See them before they close.

FACES OF FASHION

Yes, that's Ralph Lauren peeking out to check on the progress of his runway show. It's one of dozens of shots in "Behind the Scenes" a show of fashion photographs by renowned photographer Harry Benson at the Staley Wise Gallery. Spanning decades it pictures candid and portrait portrayals of Halston, Oscar de la Renta, Bill Blass, Carolina Herrera, Diane von Furstenburg and other beloved legends.

read more >

LADIES' LABORS

Looking beyond traditional teaching, nursing, housekeeping "Five Hundred Years of Women's Work" on view at the Grolier Club exhibits documents illustrating the often obscured, forgotten, and overlooked work and intellectual contributions of women – scholars, printers, publishers, scientists, artists, political activists -- from the Renaissance to the modern era. Assembled by Leonard and Lisa Uger Baskin, books, posters, memorabilia document the many ways women have supported themselves, their families, the causes they believed in.

read more >

TEXTILE TECHNIQUES

In the solo show "Tapisseries" at Twenty First Gallery, vibrant, hand-woven hangings by Alexandra Mocanu explore the Bucharest-born artist's poetical talent for creating vibrant, abstract weavings of painterly expression – rough edges, unexpected drips, and other graphic nuances portrayed in eye-deceiving textiles. Each work is based on a small scale gouache, and hand-dyed to match the original painting.

read more >

LINKING HARLEM AND THE HIGH LINE

Jordan Casteel's 2017 "the Baayfalls" oil painting of a Harlem hat seller with her Senegalese brother is recreated in a large scale mural on a wall overlooking The High Line near 22nd Street. This is the first public artwork of the artist known for her portraiture sensitively expressing the gazes, gestures, and lives of the people around her.

read more >

SHADES OF THE 'SIXTIES

Pushing abstraction in new directions, Kenneth Nolan, Helen Frankenthaler, Morris Louis, Jules Olitski, Alma Thomas explored a range of formal possibilities and liberating uses of color in their work. "The Fullness of Color: 1960's Painting" at the Guggenheim shows results of their range of divergent styles and techniques and reflects on the museum's engagement with the vibrant period.

read more >

PHOTO CREDITS Sharon King Hoge Guggenheim: Kenneth Nolan, "Trans Shift" 1964 High Line: Jordan Casteel, The Baayfalls, 2017/2019 (rendering). A High Line Commission. On view December 2019 – December 2020. Courtesy the High Line.

BrownHarrisStevens.com

NEW YORK CITY · HAMPTONS · PALM BEACH · MIAMI · WORLDWIDE

BHS PARTNERING
WORLDWIDE

LP LUXURY
PORTFOLIO
INTERNATIONAL

Leading
REAL ESTATE COMPANIES OF THE WORLD

All information is from sources deemed reliable but is subject to errors, omissions, change of price, prior sale or withdrawal without notice. No representation or guaranty is made as to accuracy of any description. All measurements and other information should be re-confirmed by customer. All rights to content, photographs and graphics reserved to Broker.