

*For New York City's Enthusiasts,
We want to keep you informed
with the Newest and Latest...*

Leonel Piraino

Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker

212-906-9363

917-701-2363

lpiraino@bhsusa.com

View my Listings > >

Free shows are coming to Lincoln Center this spring

This is the first time Lincoln Center is offering this kind of payment method—its goal is to explore new ticketing practices as a community to make performances more accessible to more people and to center equity and inclusion in every aspect, according to its website. That being said, there is a suggested ticket price of $35 (you can still pay more or less) and the minimum ticket price is $5.

READ MORE ▶

The Macy's Flower Show in NYC

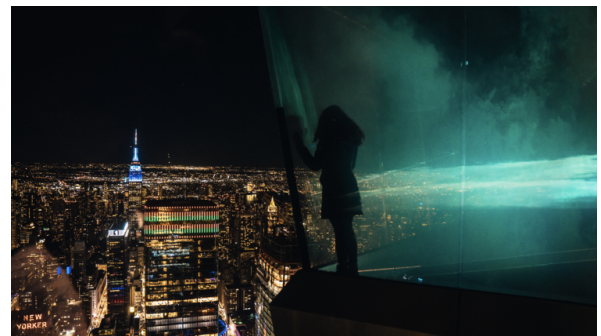

Soon, NYC will be budding with blooms all over, including over at the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, but nothing beats roaming the sweet-smelling foliage that suddenly appears at one of the city's best department stores: Macy's Herald Square. Before you know it, New York will be gearing up for all the spring festivals, and tank-top weather will be in full swing—really!

READ MORE ▶

St. Patrick's Day in NYC

The luck of the Irish is with us this year—St. Patrick's Day in NYC is shaping up to be quite a celebration this year with the return of the New York St. Patrick's Day Parade! Epic parties and events promising live music and Irish fare will be back, bringing Irish pride to the streets of Manhattan, passing venerable New York

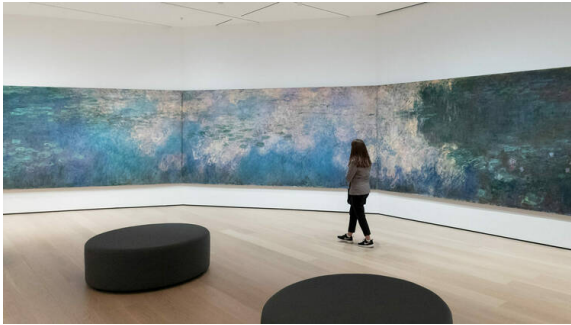

An immersive Northern Lights experience is opening at Edge

If you can't get to Iceland to see the Northern Lights in all of their natural glory, worry not! "Skylight," a new interactive light spectacle inspired by the aurora borealis, will open at Edge—the highest outdoor sky deck in the Western Hemisphere—on March 3 and run through March attractions, including the beautiful St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth Avenue. There's no doubt NYC is one of the best cities to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, one report says it's the fourth-best city to be in on the holiday.

READ MORE ▶

MoMA is launching free museum nights with UNIQLO

Starting in March, you'll be able to get into the Museum of Modern Art for free during UNIQLO NYC Nights! Starting March 4, MoMA and UNIQLO are offering free admission to NYC residents on the first Friday of every month from 4 to 8pm. On these days, you'll get to explore the museum during extended hours and enjoy its second-floor café and Museum store. UNIQLO NYC Nights are part of the two organization's decade-long partnership.

READ MORE ▶

7. The shows will run 20 minutes every night from 7pm to 10pm, with a 45-minute break between each remarkable display. Expect the dazzling production to feature dancing waves of light illuminating Edge's deck, effectively creating dramatic illustrations that resemble the Northern Lights over our own city's skyline.

READ MORE ▶

Go Ice Skating in NYC

Ice skating is one of the things you can still do in New York through March! For example, the rink at Rockefeller Center offers an unforgettable experience in a great setting. Expect a bit of a wait, as it is one of the most popular rinks in New York.

READ MORE ▶

Experience New York in March quite relaxed with a dinner cruise

I am quite a big fan of the boat tours with dinner in New York. It's warm inside, jazzy music plays and there's delicious food (and drinks). And during the whole cruise you see the wintry New York with its impressive skyline.

READ MORE ►

Visit a Rooftop Bar in March (really!)

No kidding, even in March you can visit some of the best rooftop bars in the city! With radiant heaters, free blankets and warm rooftop lounges you can make yourself comfortable there even in icy temperatures. The great view will warm your heart. At 230 Fifth near the Flatiron building, you can even sit in a heated igloo while enjoying a breathtaking view of the skyline – how cool is that!

READ MORE ►

20 at 20 Off-Broadway

The Off Broadway Alliance will again sponsor 20at20, the bi-annual celebration of Off Broadway. The popular promotion, which begins March 20th and continues through April 9th, makes $20 tickets for participating Off Broadway plays and musicals available to theatre-goers twenty minutes prior to curtain. For more than a

SUMMIT One Vanderbilt Experience

SUMMIT One Vanderbilt blends elements of art and technology, taking the concept of an “observation deck” to entirely new heights. Explore three levels of mind-bending multi-sensory immersive experiences set atop the tallest commercial skyscraper in Midtown decade, 20at20 has become one of New York's most eagerly-anticipated promotions for budget-conscious theatre-goers.

READ MORE ▶

Manhattan. Enjoy spectacular 360 views of New York City and beyond on all 3 floors of SUMMIT, including close ups views of the Empire State Building and the Chrysler building.

READ MORE ▶

SEE IT NOW

Curated List by Sharon Hoge

Even after the Ides of March on the 15th, there's still half a month to take in some of these temporary exhibits showing around town.

Ronald S. Lauder Collection

The Neue Galerie

Developed over the course of 65 years, the collection of the museum's co-founder includes Greek and Roman sculpture, elaborate metal armor, Italian gold-ground paintings, Kunstkammer objects, Austrian and German artworks, and one section devoted to items from the film "Casablanca."

Closes March 20

READ MORE ▶

Susan Swartz

Jason McCoy Gallery

In vibrant colors and rich textures observed in the natural world, abstract works with a three-dimensional quality explore the intersection of nature and spirituality in works inspiring viewers to revere and protect the environment.

Closes April 7

READ MORE ►

Pictures from Home: Larry Sultan

Yancy Richardson Gallery

The photographer's parents and their pursuit of the American dream are portrayed in pictures dating from the 1980's which explore the dynamics of family and suburban life a subject also portrayed in a companion Broadway show which is running simultaneously.

Closes April 8

READ MORE ►

Wolf Kahn

Miles McEnergy

Landscapes of blazing orange trees, skies of acidic yellow green, shades responsive to emotional expression, portray not the realities of nature but the artist's direct, sensual experience of color.

Closes March 11

READ MORE ►

Nick Cave: Forothermore

The Guggenheim Museum

Blending sculpture, costume design, and instrument making, colorful and fanciful creations spanning the career of the internationally acclaimed artist reflect his lifelong commitment to creating space for working class communities, queer people of color, and others who feel marginalized by dominant society and culture.

Closes April 10

READ MORE ►

Charles Gaines: Southern Trees

Hauser & Wirth

Often central images in his work, the pecan trees in these images, photographed on a visit to a Charleston County plantation, expand on Gaines' significant original body of work while alluding to the haunting lyrics of the Billie Holiday protest anthem "Strange Fruit."

Closes April 1

READ MORE ►

Chroma: Ancient Sculpture in Color

Metropolitan Museum of Art

Based on analysis, 3D imaging, and historical research, reconstructions of ancient Greek and Roman sculptures illustrate their original condition -- colorful, richly painted, and adorned with detailed ornamentation.

Closes March 26

READ MORE ▶

Pattern and Flow A Golden Age of American Decorated Paper, 1960s to 2000s

The Grolier Club

Alluding to the seasons, the sea, geologic formations, cosmic imaginings, or pure abstractions, these marbled and paste paper designs are works by 53 imaginative and innovative artists who revived the largely forgotten arts of marbled and paste paper design, taking them to new expressive dimensions.

Closes April 8

READ MORE ▶

Juan Francisco Elso: Por America

El Museo del Barrio

Sculptures in natural organic materials examine the complex forms of contemporary Cuban, Caribbean, and Latin American identities inflected by indigenous cultural influences and traditions as well as the traumas of colonial oppression.

Closes March 26

READ MORE ►

PHOTO CREDITS

Installation view of "The Ronald S. Lauder Collection," presented at Neue Galerie New York. Photo by Hulya Kolabas Wolf Kahn, Wedge, 1995. Oil on canvas. Photo by Dan Bradica, New York, NY Nick Cave, Hustle Coat, 2021. Bronze, found textiles, and found metal objects, 59 × 41 × 16 in. (149.9 × 104.1 × 40.6 cm). Presented on Wallwork (designed in collaboration with Bob Faust), 2022. Courtesy the artist and Jack Shainman Gallery, New York. © Nick Cave. Photo Larry Sultan, My Mother Posing from the series Pictures from Home, 1984. Juan Francisco Elso. Caballo contra colibri [Horse against Hummingbird], 1988 Wood, paper, twigs, jute, wax, volcanic sand, earth, and iron Collection of El Museo del Barrio, New York. Gift of Berezdivin Collection, San Juan Puerto Rico, 2021

BrownHarrisStevens.com

NEW YORK CITY · HAMPTONS · PALM BEACH · MIAMI · WORLDWIDE

BHS PARTNERING
WORLDWIDE

LP LUXURY
PORTFOLIO
INTERNATIONAL

Leading
REAL ESTATE COMPANIES OF THE WORLD

All information is from sources deemed reliable but is subject to errors, omissions, change of price, prior sale or withdrawal without notice. No representation or guaranty is made as to accuracy of any description. All measurements and other information should be re-confirmed by customer. All rights to content, photographs and graphics reserved to Broker.

Trouble viewing this email? View in browser | Unsubscribe / Subscription Preferences