New York Fashion Week 2022 guide

Fashion Week 2022 (NYC's edition—the best edition) brings posh editors, style influencers and shutterbugs to the most extravagant runway shows of the season. Tickets to the heavy-hitters aren't open to the general public, but here's a fact you may not know: There are some designer shows and events you can actually go to. While it's no front-row seat next to Anna Wintour, get your beauty on at the best hair salons in NYC and head out to see big labels such as Tom Ford and Mulberry send their styles down the runway.

Our advice in the meantime? Visit the best places to go shopping to plan out your most stylish outfits for the week. You never know who might be taking your picture!

Guadalupe Maravilla: Tierra Blanca Joven

Brooklyn Museum of Art

Healing through ancient methods is portrayed in this exhibit which draws on personal experiences of the artist who fled El Salvador at age eight, reunited with his family in the US, recovered from cancer. Acknowledging the displacement caused by the 1792 eruption of volcano Tierra Blanca Joven, his selection of Maya works from the Museum's collection further links communal healing with displacement across time.
